WELCOME TO MARINERS TEAM

Toni Wilkerson
Children's Coordinator

Welcome Toni Wilkerson

Toni has been attending Mariners and involved with Kid's Church for more than 10 years. She has also been a consistent volunteer with Children and Youth ministries and events here during that time.

She and Rob have three daughters (Chloe, Aubrey and Emmy) who are also faithful participants here.

Welcome Toni to her new role and to continue making our Children's Ministry a blessing!

School of Methodism: Pennsylvania
The John Wesley Institute

July 27, 2024

Trinity Church
84 Lombard Ave.
Danville, PA 17821

Registration: $25 (includes lunch)

Join Dr. Ryan Danker of the John Wesley Institute and Dr. Brian Shelton of Asbury University to explore the history and message of the Wesleyan movement. The School of Methodism is designed to equip the laity with the riches of our tradition. Participants will engage in:

- History – How did Methodism start? What lit the fire?
- Theology – What is the transforming message of Methodism?

We will dive into the riches of the Wesleyan movement and engage the question of what it means to be a Wesleyan, not only how we might think like Methodists but how we might live faithfully as disciples of Jesus Christ. The original mission of Methodism was "to reform the nation, particularly the Church, and the spread scriptural holiness over the land." What does that look like today?

All presentations are aimed at a broad audience. Our time together will include teaching, fellowship and worship. Please join us for this exciting event!

Speakers include:

Dr. Brian Shelton Professor of Theology,
Wesley Scholar in Residence, Asbury University

Dr. Ryan Danker
Founding Director, The John Wesley Institute

The Schedule:

9:30 – Opening Worship
9:45 – Dr. Ryan Danker 10:45 – Break
11:00 – Dr. Brian Shelton
12:00 Lunch
